Synod Mailings

- 2.2 This is the first mailing to members for this session. The second mailing will be sent about 2 October 2001 and will contain the Standing Committee's Report, the draft legislation, other reports, the Notice of Contested Elections and the Business Paper for 26 October 2001.

Declarations by Lay Members - Certificates of Election

- 2.3 Before taking part in debate or voting on any matter, the lay members of a Synod must sign a declaration that they are communicant members of the Anglican Church of Australia and not members of any other church. You do not have to make another declaration if you made your declaration at an earlier session of the 45th Synod.

- 2.4 Members may make the declaration at the 2nd floor reception desk at St Andrew's House during office hours, or in the Wesley Theatre during the session. For lay representatives of parochial units, notice of election must have been given to the Registrar in accordance with clause 17 of the Synod Membership Ordinance 1995 before the declaration is made.

Synod Procedures, Acts & Ordinances Book and Diocesan Year Book

- 2.5 The Acts & Ordinances book has the Acts of Parliament by which the Anglican Church of Australia is constituted in New South Wales and the principal ordinances of the Sydney Synod. A copy of Acts & Ordinances can be obtained from the Diocesan Secretary upon request. Note the following -
- (a) The Standing Orders Ordinance 1968 printed on pages 290 to 307 inclusive of Acts & Ordinances was repealed in 2000. The business rules of the Synod are now contained in the Conduct of the Business of Synod Ordinance 2000, a copy of which is enclosed.
 - (b) The Elections Ordinance 1970 printed on pages 187 to 194 of Acts & Ordinances was also repealed in 2000. The rules for conducting elections at the Synod are now contained in the Synod Elections Ordinance 2000, a copy of which is also enclosed.

The latest versions of the principal ordinances can be accessed on the Synod's website at www.sydney.anglican.asn.au/synod/ords/index.htm.

- 2.6 Useful information about the Synod and the Diocese can be accessed on the Synod's website at www.sydney.anglican.asn.au/synod/handbook/index.htm.
- 2.7 There are 2 "orders" or "houses" in the Synod - the clergy and the laity and there is provision for votes to be taken by "orders", if required. It helps in identification during debates and the counting of votes if the clergy wear their clerical collars.
- 2.8 Earlier this year, copies of the 2001 Diocesan Year Book, which has summaries of the proceedings of the 2000 Synod session and a reprint of the Standing Committee's Report etc, were posted to parishes for Synod members. You can also read the summaries on the Synod's website at www.sydney.anglican.asn.au/synod.

Membership of the Synod

- 2.9 The "life" of a Synod is about 3 years. A list of members will be tabled in the Synod on 26 October 2001.

Notices of Motions for the Session

- 2.10 Notices of motions to be included on the business paper for the first day of the session must be in writing and received by the Standing Committee (address letters to the Diocesan Secretary) by 26 September 2001. A member of Synod may give up to 2 notices of motions in this manner.
- 2.11 Any member of Synod may give notice of a further motion or motions at the start of business on the first 3 days of the session.

Guidelines for the Moving of Motions

- 2.12 Part 4 of the business rules contain the general rules of debate in the Synod. The various stages for the consideration of ordinances and rules are described on the Synod's website at www.sydney.anglican.asn.au/synod/handbook/synodprocedure.htm. Most business is transacted through motions and amendments.
- 2.13 The subject matter of a motion must relate to the order and good government of the Church within this Diocese, or the declaration of views on matters affecting the Anglican Church of Australia or affecting the spiritual, moral or social welfare of this Church, otherwise it may be out of order.
- 2.14 A notice of a motion should be brief and to the point, it should not contain argument, it should not have a long preamble or be written as a speech, and it should not contain material which is unbecoming or defamatory.
- 2.15 If in doubt about the form of a motion, try and find a precedent from the resolutions of the previous session (in the 2001 Year Book) or ask the Diocesan Secretary, a Regional Bishop, an Archdeacon, the Chairman of Committees or someone else who has experience of the business of Synod. But these things need thought, so do not leave it until the last minute when it will be too late to do anything.

Likely Reports and Ordinances for the Session

- 2.16 Reports and audited accounts from approximately 60 committees etc will be tabled during the session.
- 2.17 Proposed ordinances include -

Church Discipline Ordinance 1996 Amendment Ordinance 2001

This bill is to amend the Church Discipline Ordinance 1996 which provides a means for disciplining persons who fail to meet the standards of behaviour expected of ministers and persons holding positions in the church. The bill is at the approval in principle stage.

This bill seeks to allow for the appointments of alternates to attend Synod in the place of ministers and parish lay representatives. The bill is at the approval in principle stage.

2.18 Detailed information on the bills will be provided in the second Synod mailing.
