4/11 Disability Sunday

Synod, mindful of Christ's clear call in Luke 14 that those who follow Him will be socially inclusive of the vulnerable and people with a disability, and in line with Synod Resolution 34/09 which commits the Diocese to advocate to Government on behalf of people with a disability, strongly supports the establishment of a National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) and calls on parishes to participate in Disability Sunday on October 30, 2011 as a way of encouraging social inclusion in church life of people with a disability and their carers.

- (ii) the publisher's stated intention to withdraw from publication the 1984 edition of the NIV.

Synod therefore thanks God for several more recently published English versions (both revised and fresh translations) of the Bible and encourages their careful study by those Ministers and other church leaders who will need to make a decision about which option to select as their preferred Bible translation for the public reading and preaching of Scripture.

(Mr Hans Norved 12/10/2011)

14/11 Humanity and rights of unborn children

In light of the San Jose Articles, launched on 6 October 2011 at the United Nations, which defend the humanity and rights of unborn children and clarify that access to abortion is not a right under international instruments, this Synod –

- (a) affirms that all human life is a gift from God, and, irrespective of race, gender, ability, and socio-economic circumstances, is created in his image, with inherent dignity and value, and accordingly, that ending the life of an unborn child is to be avoided unless the mother's own life is genuinely at risk; and
- (b) declares that the gospel of Jesus Christ offers complete forgiveness, healing and hope to all those who have knowingly ended the life of an unborn child; and
- (c) thanks God for the efforts of those responsible for the San Jose Articles, in their attempts to defend the rights of unborn children; and

15/11 Harbour Church

Synod acknowledges the far reaching significance of Policy 2 of the Diocesan Mission and therefore welcomes to our fellowship the new Recognised Church of Harbour Church, Shellharbour with its first rector the Rev Rob Sharp and Synod representatives.

In welcoming this new parish without property, Synod gives thanks to God –

- (a) for the missionary outreach initiative of the parish of Shellharbour City Centre to plant a new congregation in 2007 into Shellharbour Anglican College, along with their sacrificial concern to nurture and grow that congregational plant until it would stand alone as a separate church within our Diocese;
- (b) for the courage and conviction of the lay planting team originally led by the Rev Mal York who stepped up to the mark, counted the cost and moved their families to plant a new congregation, in a new place, for the sake of the lost;
- (c) for the provision in 2010 of the Rev Rob Sharp and his family to take charge of the congregational plant and skillfully grow it into an evangelistic force in the Shellharbour Anglican College and in the local community along with the growth of the Harbour Church community and their strong partnership in the gospel;
- (d) for the external financial partners who generously contributed resources in partnership with Shellharbour City Centre and for the generosity of the Anglican Schools Corporation, through Shellharbour Anglican College with its head Tony Cummings and School Council, for their mission mindedness in placing the resources of the College at the ongoing disposal of Harbour Church;
- (e) for the global financial crisis which resulted in the government stimulus plan, whereby a new multi purpose hall was built at the college in 2010. This has given an enormous boost to Harbour Church which is now free to grow and fill that hall with more than 500 believers and their children to the glory and praise of God.

(Bishop Peter Hayward 12/10/2011)

18/11 Gambling in Australia

This Synod again notes the Productivity Commission's report into gambling which reports that –

- (i) there are between 80,000 – 160,000 problem gamblers in Australia, with another 230,000 – 350,000 vulnerable to problem gambling;
- (ii) poker machine users are disproportionately represented among the ranks of Australia's problem gamblers;
- (iii) 41% of the $11.9 billion that Australians lose annually on poker machines comes from problem gamblers.

Therefore Synod again endorses efforts being proposed in Australia's Federal Parliament to reduce the impact and incidence of problem gambling, for example, by the introduction of a compulsory pre-commitment system for poker machine use.

In addition, Synod calls on the NSW Government to reduce its reliance on taxation on gambling.

Synod encourages ministers, synod representatives and other church members to continue to write to their parliamentary representatives in support of such harm minimisation measures and commends to Synod members and ministers the Social Issues Executive Briefings 33 and 91 (available on-line) for sound biblical arguments for why gambling is both wrong for Christian believers and damaging to our community.
