The purpose of the Corporation is to further the work of the Anglican Church of Australia in the Diocese of Sydney by facilitating and assisting the effective use of property and other resources for promoting and proclaiming the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ by undertaking the functions, and exercising the powers, set out in this Ordinance.

Part 3 – Membership of the Corporation

5. Membership of the Corporation

(1) The Corporation is to consist of –

(2) At least two of the members appointed under clause 5(1)(e) are to be members of the clergy licensed in the Diocese of Sydney with at least a three-year theological degree from Moore Theological College or another college that is endorsed by the Archbishop for the purposes of this clause.

(3) A person is disqualified from being nominated, elected or appointed as, or otherwise being, a member if the person –

- (a) is an insolvent under administration, or
- (b) is of unsound mind or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under any law relating to mental health, or

(4) Every member must, upon being nominated, elected, appointed as, or otherwise becoming, a member, sign the “Statement of Personal Faith” set out in the Schedule and deliver it to the Chair (or the Diocesan Secretary, if no Chair has been appointed) within 28 days of the date of that person becoming a member. If a person fails to do so, the person is disqualified from being, and automatically ceases to be, a member.

(2) At the first meeting of the Standing Committee next following each ordinary session of the Synod, each member who is a member elected by the Standing Committee is to retire from office if three years will otherwise elapse since they were last elected as a member by the Standing Committee.

(3) Subject to this Ordinance, a retiring member is eligible for re-election or re-appointment, and a retiring member remains a member until his or her successor is elected or appointed.

(4) No vacancy in the office of member affects the authority or powers of the Corporation and, subject to clauses 12 and 13, that authority and those powers may be exercised by the members holding office from time to time.

7. Casual vacancies in the office of member

(1) A person also ceases to be a member if the person –

- (a) dies, or

- (b) resigns as a member by written notice to the Chair (or to the Diocesan Secretary if the resigning member is the Chair), and such resignation takes effect from the date of receipt of the notice by the Chair (or the Diocesan Secretary, as the case may be), or Thereafter, the relevant chair may appoint another person as their nominee. A chair is not required to give reasons.

(3) A person who is a member elected by the Standing Committee also ceases to be a member if the Standing Committee so resolves. A person who is a member appointed by the Archbishop ceases to be a member if the Archbishop so determines. A person who is the member appointed by the Mission Property Committee ceases to be a member if the Mission Property Committee so resolves. The Standing Committee, the Archbishop and the Mission Property Committee are not required to give reasons.

8. Filling of a casual vacancy in the office of member

(1) A casual vacancy among the members elected by the Standing Committee may be filled by the Standing Committee.

(2) A casual vacancy in the office of the member appointed by the Archbishop may be filled by the Archbishop.

(3) A casual vacancy in the office of the member appointed by the Mission Property Committee may be filled by the Mission Property Committee.

(4) A person elected or appointed to fill a casual vacancy is taken for the purposes of this Ordinance (other than clause 5(5)) to have been elected or appointed on the date that the person whose place they have taken was last elected or appointed.

reappointed for a further term, except that a member is not eligible to be re-appointed as Chair if such re-appointment would result in that member being the Chair for a continuous period of 9 years or more. For the purposes of this clause, 2 or more periods of service as Chair will be taken to be one continuous period unless they were separated by a continuous period of at least 12 months during which the person was not the Chair.

17. Powers of the Corporation

(1) Subject to this Ordinance and the terms of the trusts on which any property is held, the Corporation has the powers necessary to enable it to perform its functions.

(2) The Corporation may only exercise its functions and powers with respect to the acquisition or development of real property held on trust for the purposes of a parochial unit or a diocesan organisation (including without limitation by setting and reviewing strategy and policies for the Mission Property Committee which impacts such property) with the written consent of the Regional Bishop and a majority of the members of the parish council of the parochial unit, or the council of the diocesan organisation, as the case may be.

(3) The Corporation may, from time to time, by resolution, determine or set strategies and policies in respect of the acquisition or development of real property or the proposed acquisition or development of real property and the Mission Property Committee must comply with those strategies and policies in the performance of its powers and functions.

(4) Nothing in this Ordinance limits the obligations, powers and discretions of the NCNC as trustee of any public ancillary fund or any fund that has deductible gift recipient status which apply under, or operate pursuant to, law.

(1) In this clause –

“collaboration agreement” has the meaning given by clause 17A(2)(a).

“costs” means all costs and expenses incurred in relation to undertaking the collaboration agreement and the property initiatives, but does not include –

- (a) the internal costs and expenses of a diocesan entity, including the staff costs of all diocesan entities, the Standing Committee or the Property Trust, and “diocesan entity” means an entity or officer of the Diocese.

(5) The Corporation is responsible to each associated diocesan entity for the management of the property initiatives and for this purpose must, on the request of a diocesan entity supported by reasonable evidence of loss incurred or claim made in relation to a property initiative, undertake best endeavours to enforce the indemnity referred to in subclause (3)(b) for the benefit of that diocesan entity.
