XXXXXXXXXX

Long Title

An Ordinance to simplify the preparation and construction of ordinances of the Synod.

Preamble

Whereas

A. Much work is caused in the administration of this Church by reason of having to repeat in long form in many ordinances of the Synod commonly occurring expressions.

B. It is expedient that such ordinances be simplified.

Now the Standing Committee of the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney in the name and place of the said Synod Hereby Ordains Declares Directs and Rules as follows.

1. Citation

This Ordinance may be cited as the "Interpretation Ordinance 1985".

2. Preamble to an Ordinance

Except where expressly provided by some Act or ordinance, it shall not be necessary for any ordinance to have a preamble.

3. Commencement Date of an Ordinance

Unless an ordinance otherwise provides it shall commence upon the date of receiving the Archbishop's assent.

4. Text of Ordinances Made by the Synod

A copy of an ordinance as printed in a Year Book of the Diocese whether published before or after the coming into operation of the ordinance shall be presumed to contain the true text of a valid ordinance of the Synod of the Diocese, and the date of assent so published shall be presumed to be the actual date of assent.

5. Interpretation of Ordinances

In all ordinances from time to time in force in the Diocese including ordinances enacted prior to the date of assent to this Ordinance, unless the contrary intention appears –

- (a) Definitions in the Interpretation Act 1987 as from time to time in force shall apply.
- (b) Definitions in the Parish Administration Ordinance 2008 as from time to time in force shall apply.
- (c) The words set out in the first Column of the Schedule to this Ordinance shall bear the meaning set out in the second Column of the Schedule.
- (d) The expression "insolvent under administration" has the same meaning as in the Corporations Law.

6. Gender and Singular/Plural

In any ordinance unless the contrary intention appears words importing the masculine gender (other than a reference, however expressed, to a minister or clergyman) shall include the other genders and the singular shall include the plural.

6A. References to priest and presbyter

In all ordinances from time to time in force in the Diocese the words "priest" and "presbyter" are synonyms.

7. Updating References to Other Ordinances

- (1) Where an Act or an ordinance or a provision of an Act or an ordinance is referred to in another ordinance and the Act, ordinance or provision so referred to has, at the time the reference is made, been amended or is subsequently amended, the reference extends to the Act, ordinance or provision as amended.
- (2) Subclause (1) applies to a reference to an Act or ordinance made before or after the date of assent to this Ordinance and whether the reference is contained in an Act or ordinance made before or after the date.

8. Reprinting Ordinances which have been Amended

The Diocesan Secretary is authorised to reprint any ordinance which has been amended by a subsequent ordinance, in such a format as will best indicate to members of the Church the text of the ordinance as currently in force. The clause headings and the table of provisions of an ordinance and any notes in an ordinance are not part of the text of that ordinance.

8A. Reprinting Ordinances with Pre-Decimal References

- (1) The Diocesan Secretary may reprint any ordinance which contains a reference to an amount of money in the currency provided for in the Acts repealed by section 7 (the "repealed Acts") of the Currency Act 1965 (Cth) (the "Currency Act").
- (2) In reprinting an ordinance under subclause (1), the Diocesan Secretary may substitute a reference to the currency provided for in the repealed Acts for the corresponding amount of money in the currency provided for by the Currency Act calculated on the basis of the equivalents specified in subsection (4) of section 8 of that Act.

9. Repeal

The Amendments Incorporation Ordinance 1947 is hereby repealed.

10. Updating Certain References

Where a reference in an Act or ordinance is (by or under any Act or ordinance) to be read or construed as, or taken to be, or deemed to be, or otherwise treated as, a reference to –

- (a) an act, matter, person or thing; or

(b) an act, matter, person or thing by a particular description or title;
the Diocesan Secretary may in reprinting an ordinance in which the first mentioned reference occurs make such amendments to the ordinance as –

(c) will result in the omission from the ordinance of the first mentioned reference and, unless inappropriate, the substitution therefor of the second mentioned reference; and

(d) are incidental to or consequential on the omission or substitution or both.

11. Reference to a Repealed Ordinance

A reference in an ordinance to an ordinance which has been repealed may be construed as a reference to which clause 10 applies and may be amended in accordance with clause 10.

11A. Effect of repeal of ordinance or exclusion of canon

The repeal of an ordinance, or part of an ordinance, or the exclusion of a canon of the General Synod by which previous law was repealed shall not have the effect of reviving the previous law without express words to that effect.

12. Canons of 1603

A reference in this or in any other ordinance to the Canons of 1603 is a reference to the Constitutions and Canons Ecclesiastical agreed upon by the bishops and clergy of the Province of Canterbury in the year of Our Lord 1603 and known as the Canons of 1603 and includes any amendments thereto having force or effect in any part of This Church in this Diocese.
