

Manager Pastoral Support and Education (Chaplain)

- Full time or the potential for part time (30 hours)
- Utilise your pastoral training skills within a friendly team
- CBD based

Join the Archbishop's Professional Standards Unit (PSU) as Manager Pastoral Support and Education and help promote a culture of safe ministry.

This position is full time with the potential to be part time (30 hours). In this role you will be responsible for:

- Providing pastoral care and support to those who require assistance from the PSU. This will include caring for complainants and survivors of sexual misconduct and child abuse.
- Training and education for prevention of abuse in key areas.

To be successful, you will need:

- To be aligned with the principles and values of the Anglican Church in the Diocese of Sydney;
- Relevant training and experience in pastoral care;
- Excellent interpersonal skills with skills in relationship management and pastoral concern;
- The ability to manage your own priorities, administration, and enjoy working in a focused team;

Qualifications in theology, social work, psychology or chaplaincy are useful but not essential.

Applicants for the position should have a demonstrated Christian commitment, ideally as a member of an Anglican church in the Diocese.

- Apply now with a covering letter and resume to recruit@sydney.anglican.asn.au
- For more information contact Lachlan Bryant, Director of the Professional Standards Unit on 9265 1514 or lcb@sydney.anglican.asn.au. Email annelie@safeministry.org.au for a position description.

Applicants are to provide a covering letter, a CV and references

Closing Date: 24 February 2020

RESPECT

INNOVATE

COLLABORATE

CELEBRATE

DELIVER